AMANDA KAY

From the moment we met you
we were nuts about you

You were then, and continue to be the "sparkle" in our family

Watching you grow has been a pleasure~
your joy of life is amazing

It was a difficult adjustment for you at school especially that first year~
Being the new kid, being hurt by others,
It was hard watching you struggle~
but you found your way through it

You learned some difficult lessons there:
Life is not always fair
Friends are not always true
And you don't win every time
Ultimately these lessons are as valuable as anything you learned in the classroom

You fought your battle with Guillian~Barre bravely, and without complaint
Who else but you could smile while paralyzed and on a ventilator?

Your comeback was nothing short of spectacular !!!!!

Now it's time to take all you've learned and get started on whatever is waiting out there for you

You'll be great, we just know it

Love, Mom, Dad and Mike

Congratulations!

Dear Stephanie,

When you were born, you were such a beautiful, sweet baby who has now grown up to be a beautiful, young lady who is determined, independent, sensitive and intelligent. We wish for you a life of goodness, accomplishment and love. No matter how difficult it may seem at times, you have within you the ability, power, and knowledge to make things better. No matter what you become or achieve, what is most important is that you are happy. Follow your dreams and believe in yourself. Laugh and have fun every day and remember, above all else, the importance of your family who will love and care for you always.

Congratulations Stef!

My Heart

You have reached the end only to find a new start. How many times you almost lost your way, but you continually strive to make your goals come true. You have graduated! A legacy that you,ve fully earned. You are learning now to believe in yourself. Reach high, for stars lie hidden in your soul. Dream deep, for every dream precedes a goal. I love you for always making a positive difference in the lives of others, giving your very best to bring happiness to your friends. Look for what is good and you wil find it, honey. Be at peace with who you are and always do what you believe is right. How valuable you are in God's eyes! Do not follow where the path may lead, but go instead where there is no path and leave a trail. We are so very proud of you!

I'm sure it was just yesterday that I brought you home from the hospital, or maybe it was just yesterday that you had your first dance recital. We're so proud of who you've become today and of the success we know you will continue to have.

May your future be as wonderful for you as the last 18 years have been for us.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, Scott, Stephen,

Emily,

Thank you for answering our prayers and fulfilling our dreams with simply being yourself and living your life. Stand tall, keep your head clear, your mind open to new concepts, nurture your heart with compassion, have divine faith in God, never forget how important your existence and dreams are in life! You could never disappoint us! Love you always, Mom, Dad, Tony & Andy

(as I was trimming your toenails), "Come on Dad, we're off like a prom dress!", Medusa curls, "Good morning Whitchie-Pooh!", "...remember, Mom knows everything!..." "I weally, weally want this!", "Aruba, Jamiaca, uh, I want to take you", color guard, Saint Rita, Whinit...nit...whit, tan lines and pink feet, BROTHERS!, Osbournes, MTV, little notes from Mom, believing you really were a dog! COMPASSION!!, flagging down your softball team with my unmentionables!, slumber parties, chocolate donuts, chocolate milk dates with Dad, the Godfather, GEO Jules, late night talks, saying "Goodbye and I Love you every morning".

Tiny,

August 6th was the day you captured our hearts. We always considered you our gift from God. Watching you grow from that funny little girl into the beautiful talented young woman we see today has been nothing but pride and joy. We have had our good times and our bad. But there was always that soft pillow to fall back on called home. As you venture off to college and spread your wings, please remember you are never alone. You have your faith and family to help you through anything.

May God Bless you on life's journey,

Love you always,

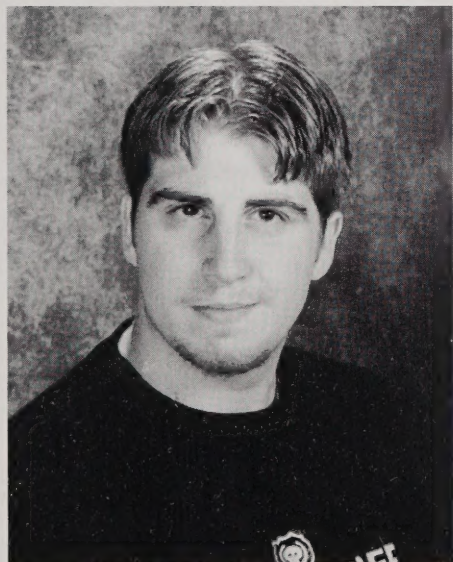

Mom & Dad

Congratulations Lauren!

It's so hard to believe that our baby is graduating and going off to college. You've been waiting for this day to come for a long time, but for us it has come much too soon. We love you, we are so proud of you, and we know that success will be yours for the asking. No matter what successes you enjoy, just remember you will always be our bitsy baby (and our Laura. LuLu, LuLuLaroo, Larcey, Larcerita, Lola, Loopy, Lucretia, Charo and ZsaZsa!).

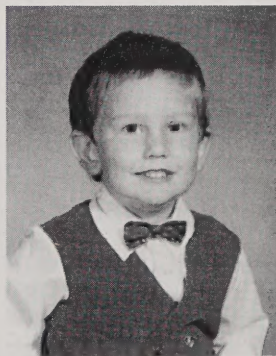

We love you, Mom and Dad

CONGRATULATIONS WILL!

Our dreams are defined by our hearts...our future is designed by our dreams. Just follow your heart and do your best, and all the potential within you is sure to be realized and bring you happiness. Over the years you've made us laugh, you've made us cry, but most of all you've made us proud.

So many people believe in you...make sure you're one of them.

*We love you,

Ash,

Life is like a merry-go-round. It goes around and around. Grab the brass ring and get off when you want to. The ride will be fun, but the end will be worth a lifetime.

Love Dad

We are proud and love you.

Ashley,

Wow, where did the years go? It seems like yesterday you were my little girl - now you are a beautiful young woman. Your father and I are extremely proud of you. It took you four years to start talking and you have certainly made up for those lost years.

Remember everything is possible, as long as you work hard for it.

I once received a fortune that said "Blue eyes will bring you much happiness." How right that fortune was.

We love you, Mom, Dad, Zach & Bailey

Sarah Belle,

How very proud we are of you, as you should be of yourself with all that you have accomplished. You've always been your own person with your unique style.

The good choices you have made thus far have molded you into an incredible, independent person. You have always told us you have things "under control". You have proven this over and over again, and we now feel that you have a solid foundation for whatever life brings.

Your family and friends admire the examples you have set.

As you begin this new journey in life, we are certain that you will face the new challenges with determination and confidence.

Remember to believe that you can, and you will. Our hope is that your future will be one of love, happiness, and success.

All our love and support
